

THE GLEICHEN CALL

VOLUME XXX NO. 45

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1938

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 PER YEAR

W.A. ST. ANDREWS ELECT OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR

The thirty-first meeting of the St. Andrews W. A. was held at the home of Mrs. Chas Thompson. There was a splendid attendance of members and Rev. Mr. Lamb, the Minister and Al. Angus, Mayor, Strathmore.

Al. Angus presided for the election of officers for the new year.

Hon. Pres. Mrs. Lang:

Hon. Pres. Mrs. A. Jones; President, Mrs. A. F. MacCullum; Vice-President, Mrs. W. Sutermeister.

Secretary, Mrs. S. Dafe.

Treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Gorrell; Junior Supervisor, Mrs. P. Dehaven.

Deacons Secretary, Mrs. J. Downie; Visiting and flower committee, Mrs. Haskayne, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Jennings.

Lunch convenor, Mrs. Bush; Delegates to the diocesan meeting are Mrs. MacCullum, Mrs. Sutermeister and Mrs. Dehaven.

The retiring president, Mrs. J. E. Ostrander, who has guided the destinies of the Association W. A. for the past three years and who has incidentally been a member for well nigh thirty years, expressed her sincere appreciation of the splendid support given her by the members during her term of office and added that the same spirit of good will attend the new president.

OBITUARY

OLIVER ANDREW FERGUSON

Sunday after noon at 2:30 o'clock funeral services for Oliver A. Ferguson were conducted at the home of Rev. Mr. Wilkinson at the United Church. The church was filled with relatives and friends. Interment was made in the local cemetery; beside his wife who died in 1926. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. G. and W. McLean, W. Blaney and F. T. Mair and S. Duncan.

Mrs. Ferguson is survived by three children all at home: Wm. Wm., Ret. and G. G. He is survived by his wife, William and John of Gleichen and Edvard in Ontario and a sister, also living in the east.

/ Duesued was born in Elmvale Ontario in 1881 and died on 20 year anniversary of Gleichen taking a farm near St. Robert.

He lived until a couple of months ago when he was severely injured in a car accident after which he was taken to a Calgary hospital where he died early Saturday morning.

ROBSON CARL SHEETS

R. C. Sheets died suddenly at his home north of Gleichen, Monday evening at the age of 55. Funeral services will be conducted from the home of Rev. Mr. Wilkinson on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Sheets was born in Webster City, Iowa, and has farmed in the district for the past 20 years. He leaves his wife; three sons, Harold, Ray and John; two daughters, Mrs. John Stickle and Ethel Mildred; two sisters and three brothers.

WHY WE CURL

Now that the curling season is at its height, the games lost and won and the alibis, considered for what they are worth, it may not be out of place to ask why people who are supposed to be in their right mind will risk death from pneumonia contracted as a result of the cold strain every match in their body. They will sweep a rock where it will not go, sweep it and sweep; lose their tempers, upset their digressions and stagger home after midnight, exhausted, disgruntled and disappointed, and because a Scotch John called curling, is foisted on them as a suspecting and gullible world. As for the game itself, there is not a single thing to recommend it; and its disadvantages are patiently evident to all. It makes the weather cold, not of weather when one cannot curl because a stone. The ice on which it is played must be so slippery that one risks a broken neck with every step, and so crooked that the skip can never get his rock in line. Although every member of the rink must place his rock exactly where the skip wants them or be accused of

News Items of Local Interest

Elie Wool is at present working and also repairing ships. The storm which sounded the fire brigade was on to us short order. It was found to be a week or ten days

The annual town and school meeting of the rate payers will be held in the Community Hall next Friday night.

Mr. E. Forest of Calgary is visiting Mrs. J. F. Gorrell and remains until Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. MacCullum formerly of Gleichen.

Arthur Brown has returned home from the winter and is at present visiting his parents. Arthur spends the summer as head engineer on a boat on the Great Lakes and will return to his job soon as the ice goes out and navigation opens.

The Midgets played at Arrowood Saturday night winning the game by a score of 3-1. The Arrowood team was the stronger group here last Friday evening at 7 o'clock. This squad were to have played here last Wednesday but for some reason were unable to come.

Clarence Marke who when a young man left here 30 years ago paid the local old timers a short visit Saturday. He stated there are not many old timers left here now but he met most of those who have left. Clarence is now located at Red Deer. His father was for some years Indian agent here.

January 28th - party and dance at Livingstons school.

The annual curling parties given by the east bunch started last Friday at the home of Mrs. A. N. McLeay with six tables playing. First prizes were won by Mrs. McArthur and Mr. McKeever. Mrs. Buckley won the second and Mrs. G. G. Sheets the men's. Mr. G. G. Sheets and Mr. Bean won the gents consolation. Mr. C. Routhie had the lucky shibor. Al went home in the wee hours of the morning thanking the host and hosts for the good time.

One evening last week smoke was seen coming from J. Little's house. The smoke was from the chimney. The house was losing the game and last and least of all, the ice must be so dirty that every rock must be swept from the hogline to house lest a swirled deflected its course; the skip's rocks being swept twice as much as any of the others. In addition, the game is not over until the skip's last rock deflected only slightly his position is to try to himself defeated by ill luck on the very last end. Even then the game would have been won had the lead put his rock where the skip wanted it to go.

Following the game everyone smiles hypocritically and shakes hands with everyone else and hastens to some ready retreat there to recount the lack of skill on the part of the skip. The game is not over until upon the part of the members of the rink upon which the narrator has the ill-luck to be playing, and the heroic efforts put forth by the said narrator by which the game was won—it is for the foolish and utterly silly way in which his partner threw the game after he—noble fellow—had put it in the bag.

If the narrator be a fast and loud talker he may finish this part of the game in a few words. The skip, however, is a free-for-all propagandist relating to the individual exploits of those present after the same fashion, and concerning the same game which every would-be respectable twit of the Municipality has heard very shame. But if the first here has a mouthful of slow speech and a very soft voice he finds by the time he has explained the position of the rocks as he does the game is over. He has the rest of the company he already commented a recital in unity without harmony. And here is the real reason for the sweat, time and energy expended in the so-called game; 'tis no gain, for even the exercise that most, not all, of it is—said truth—to provide the material for the recounting of exploits. For this, and this alone do men endure cold, pain, chilblains and the unfair criticism of the skip (the wretched)—Ex.

ICE CARNIVAL TO TAKE PLACE NEXT WEDNESDAY

St. Andrews Anglican Church will stage the annual Ice Carnival on Wednesday February 2nd at the local arena. Much interest has been created in this year's event in that the arena is an exceptionally large one and the ice is of excellent quality. The demolition was done. Mr. Little wishes to thank the brigade for their assistance and very much appreciates the speed and business like manner in which they tackled the job.

The first meeting of the Junior Union for 1938 was held at the home of Mrs. Oliver with 20 members in attendance present. The meeting opened with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" at 8 o'clock in the Morning and "When You Were a Tulip." The roll was answered by a New Year's Resolution. The program put on by the singing group was well enjoyed by all. After a dainty lunch the hostess was thanked on behalf of the Juniors while they sang for "Sally a Jolly Good Fellow." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Calkins next Friday January 31st.

HOCKEY

The first game in the playoff series was held in Gleichen Friday night, the second here Tuesday night. The first game was between the Calgary Rovers and the R. C. Red Wings. The Rovers will now meet in a two game total goal series to determine which will advance into the Morgan Cup series. The Morgan cup is competed for each year by leading amateur players in the province. Any club being eliminated in this series immediately enters into the Black Cup play-offs for the Alberta championship.

A man was one day visiting a lunatic asylum and while talking to the attendant he said: "Well, how did you get here?" The man replied: "Well, sir, I am a married man with a grown-up daughter and then my father married again and my step-mother has been the mother-in-law of my husband and my father, and my father, became my step-son. Then my step-son, the wife of my wife, had a son, and so on. The son of course, was my brother-in-law, and my wife's step-son, and that made me the grandfather of my step-son. Then my wife had a son, as my mother-in-law, the step-sister, of course, is also my son. I am sure he causes his step-sister is his wife. I am the brother of my son, who is the son of my step-grandmother. I am the mother's brother-in-law, and my wife is the wife of my son, and my son's wife is my step-sister, and I am my own grandfather. That's one reason I am here, sir."

MRS. A. N. MCLEAY HOSTESS TO LADIES OF U.F.W.A.

Mrs. A. N. McLeay was hostess to the ladies of the U. F. W. A. on Friday evening. The members and one visiting player, the opening songs being "Pack Up Your Troubles and the Long, Long Trail."

The roll call was answered by I. F. I. Felt He is a Fortune, which all responded with laughable consent. The usual and usual correspondence was dealt with. Miss Goodwin gave an interesting bulletin on the Long Trail.

Mrs. Koefod brought forth her ideas on Treasure Chest for the year while the local agreed to try same for 1938.

Mrs. McKeever took in many pretty quilt blocks for the first quilt and asked the members to have the remaining few at the next meeting.

The tea prize was drawn for and won by Mrs. B. Stots, after which the members all enjoyed the usual social hour with pie, cheese and coffee. The ladies will meet again at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hutchison on February 3rd.

GLEICHEN UNITED CHURCH
Rev. J. N. Wilkinson, Minister.
Mrs. H. Birch, choir leader.

Mrs. Jean Ferguson, pianist.
Mrs. C. C. Schaeffer, organist.

7:30 p.m. - Divine Worship. Subject: "The Ideal Social Order, can it be Realized and How?" As far back as our records will carry us ideals of brotherhood and a perfect order of society. The Hebrews had a God to whom men would bow their heads in prayer into proung holes, etc.

8:30 p.m. - Divine Worship. Subject: "The Ideal Social Order, can it be Realized and How?" As far back as our records will carry us ideals of brotherhood and a perfect order of society. The Hebrews had a God to whom men would bow their heads in prayer into proung holes, etc.

Greeks dreamed of Elysium, a paradise before the gates of Hades, a blessed world to come. Modern idealists believe that such can be realized here. Are all such hopes nothing but dreams or have these dreamers some reason for their hopes? There is an answer.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

Public notice is hereby given that a meeting of the electors of the Town of Gleichen will be held in the Community Hall on Friday the 23rd day of January, 1938, at 8:00 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of receiving the report of the Mayor, Secretary - Treasurer, Auditor, and the Chairman of the various Committees of the Council for the year ending December 31st, 1937.

Dated at Gleichen, Alta., this 20th day of January, 1938.

The Annual Meeting of the School Board will follow immediately after dismissal of ratemakers meeting.

W. J. PHYTHIAN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Ditches of water, instead of fences.

NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE OF NOMINATIONS

Town of Gleichen Municipal Elections 1938.

Public notice is hereby given that I will attend at the Town Office, Crowfoot Street, Gleichen, on Monday the 7th day of February, 1938, from 8:00 o'clock in the forenoon until twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of receiving the nominations of candidates for the office of Councillor, and School Trustee, for the ensuing two years.

Given under my hand at Gleichen, Alta., this 25th day of January, 1938.

W. J. PHYTHIAN,
Returning Officer.

keep the cows of Holland in their pastures.

Plan security through
SUN LIFE OF CANADA

WHOLE LIFE ASSURANCE
ENDOWMENT INVESTMENT

HEAD OFFICE-MONTREAL

CALGARY BREWING & MALTING CO. LTD.

THE WORLD'S GOOD NEWS

will come to you every day through

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

An International Daily Newspaper

It records for you the world's clear, consecutive news. The Monitor does not express any opinion on any question of the day, but it presents the facts, including the whole Magazine Section.

The Christian Science Publishing Society
160 Brattle Street, Boston, Massachusetts

Please enter my subscription to The Christian Science Monitor for

1 year $2.50 6 months $1.50 3 months $0.75 1 month $0.25

Send me also the Magazine Section: 1 year $2.00, 6 months $1.00

Name _____

Address _____

Sample Copy on Request

Is your subscription due for

The Call?

The label tells you

If so please call at the office

2-WAY RELIEF FOR THE MISERY OF COLDS

RELIEVES THROAT
PAIN—RAVENESSSHRINKS BODY
TURKS STOMACH
AND INTESTINES TO EASE PAIN

The speed with which "Aspirin" tablets act in relieving the distressing symptoms of a cold, and the way in which a sore throat is utterly ameliorated . . . and the treatment is simple and pleasant. This is all that can be said in favor of "Aspirin" tablets in one-third glass of water. Then purge with this mixture twice a day.

This medicinal gargarine will not act like a local anesthetic on sore, irritated mucous membranes. The soreness promptly disappears; rawness is relieved. You will say it is remarkable. And the fact is that it is. It is remarkable, saving over expensive "throat gargarines" and strong medicines.

"Aspirin" tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trademark of the Bayer Company, Limited, of Wuppertal, Germany, and the Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

Demand and Get
"ASPIRIN"
MADE IN CANADA

Modern Ideas

Farmers' Hot Stamp Answer For Young Agricultural Student

A young agricultural student with extremely modern ideas visited a farmer who suspected all new theories. The pair were leaning on a gate, gazing at the fields. The student, the farmer was weary of his companion's continual prattle about scientific farming. The youth laid up a few words, then with a smile: "The time will come when we will put all the seed for this field in one vest pocket." The reply was soon out: "Yeah, and I'll put the crop in the other."

RHEUMATIC PAINS are TORTURE!

Don't let rheumatic pains make your life miserable. Patience fades from the body and mind when these pains continue. Give your kidneys power to remove the blood poisons as they filter your blood properly. "Pain is torture" through their use!

GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

A Coming Miracle

Newspapers Of Future Printed By Electric Eye Is Prediction

Newspapers printed by an electric eye, which takes the speed of ordinary press, will be among the "miracles" described at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association. W. W. Mitchell, manager of the Chester, Pa., branch of the Standard Motor Company, addressing the closing banquet of the newspaper men's meeting, said the next 25 years would see even more startling changes in transportation, industrial procedure and social custom than in the last 25 years.

"One of the greatest changes which is in store for us is the method of getting readable information into the hands of the public," he asserted.

"You might be startled some morning to find that the school house contains a small, compact system for printing which covers hundreds of square feet of costly real estate. Instead of these lumbering affairs, newspapers will be reproduced by a photo-electric process—and at three or five times the speed of today."

"After visiting a newspaper office and asking, 'How do the wheels go round?' Mitchell said, 'I am not meaning that you ever get a paper on the street.' The multiplicity of operations starting with the arrival of a story in a newspaper office until it appears in the paper will not be the business concern of the newsman, but the editor, the printer and the binder.

"Believe me, a man's anxiety will be propounded that the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"Believers had hoped in the beginning of the war that the changes we have been talking about, and which will come with the end of the war, will be the most difficult to visualize in the newspaper of the future. It is not hard to believe that the news story will enter your office, skip the cluttered desk of the writer and editor and go straight to the linotype operator, the foundry, the mat department, and instead land almost directly on the presses."

Stepped Up Production

Canadian Mint Turned Out $12,700,000 Canadian Dollars Last Year

The Canadian mint stepped up its production in 1933 to 21,876,000 coins, including 85 million dollars over $100,000 ($300,000), according to figures available for the year.

Production was up two and a half times the average for the past nine years, but mint officials were unable to explain the reason. One explanation was the business depression, as the mint had six million dollars in employment.

Every year the mint turns out 7,000,000 to 10,000,000 copies of the coins, and the last, hoarded, mutilated issue was through constant use.

The number of silver dollars issued was 240,000; 50-cent pieces, 182,000; quarters, 2,847,600; dimes, 2,734,000; and nickels, 4,022,000. The face value of the coins issued was $1,678,000.

Mother: "Why do you play with all those rough boys? Why don't you play with the nice little boys?" Son: "Their mothers won't let me."

One thing the world can learn from Japan, and that is, how to apologize.

Proud Of Boys' Band
South Australia Has One Of Largest
In World

One of the largest drum and fife bands in boys' world is the band of the 12th Light Infantry, organized by James E. Becker, who has enlisted 120 boys in the project. The instrument and equipment, recently sent out from London to the band, were to have been the largest ever received from abroad.

Arrangements are being made for the band to make tours of South Australia and other parts of the commonwealth.

The boys have been drawn from the 200 members who represent the eastern States of Australia and made a great impression. The average age of the personnel is 14, and the band is in a red tunie and cap, with black trimmings and navy blue trousers. It will be a military band selected from boys attending metropolitan schools.

Keeps Out Mustard Gas
Special Treatment Containing Castor
Oil Makes Mask Safe

Modern scientific needs have dictated a new and unusual mask and castor oil, says the London News Chronicle. They are needed to safeguard civilian populations from gas attacks. The leather in gas masks does not hold back the gas out unless it is specially treated. Sunflower seed oil or castor oil is treated with oxygen and then with silica; result—a clear, sticky fluid. This fluid is applied to the leather and diluted in water. Leather soaked in the mixture is impregnated without being hardened, and mustard gas cannot get through.

"Thirty" is the meaning of the name Siberia.

Cut Down Food Wastage

—by covering all perishable goods with Para-Sani Heavy Waxed Paper. Para-Sani moisture-proof texture will keep them fresh until you are ready to use them.

You'll find the Para-Sani sanitary knife-edged carton handy. Or use "Centre Pull" Packs in sheet form for less exacting uses. At grocers, druggists, stationers, LISTEN... on Friday Night

CANADA-1938

IMPERIAL TOBACCO'S
INSPIRING PROGRAM

EVERY FRIDAY NIGHT
On a National
Coast to Coast Network

Amnesty Causes Trouble

Events Of Great War Still Divide
People Of Belgium

Twenty years afterwards Belgium is still divided by the events of the Great War.

On one side are the Belgians who remain loyal to Belgium and the Allies.

On the other side are the Belgians who did not resist the Germans, who co-operated with the invaders and supported the occupation.

The Flemings were generally sympathetic to the German invasion and Flemish will recall the Flemish in France who had to fight the battle, but "Japan won the war," was the cryptic comment of Prof. Fred D. Gealy, Throological Department of Aoyama Gakuin, Methodist Episcopal College.

He explained that he meant new territories to which he gave up valuable areas they were developed, and to which he gave up.

The Flemings were generally sympathetic to the German invasion and Flemish will recall the Flemish in France who had to fight the battle, but "Japan won the war," was the cryptic comment of Prof. Fred D. Gealy, Throological Department of Aoyama Gakuin, Methodist Episcopal College.

Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

"I asked him, 'What?' He said, 'We'll have Manchuria back.'

"Belgians had hoped in the beginning of the war that the Belgians would not be too flagrant in their support of the invaders but the Flemish were a minority who proposed the old raw flavor forth with a new bitterness.

